KERN COUNTY CATTLEWOMEN

P. O. BOX 81436 • BAKERSFIELD, CALIFORNIA 93380

Membership Application

The purpose of the Kern County CattleWomen's Association is to further the welfare of the cattle industry, to promote public relations, and to be of assistance to the Kern County Cattlemen's Association. KCCW is in need of women both actively involved in ranching and those who do not ranch, but have an interest in supporting the cattle industry. Join us to help promote beef, stay aware of the issues facing our industry, and support local youth through scholarships and education.

All members of Kern County CattleWomen's Association are required to also hold membership in the California CattleWomen's Association. The combined fees for membership are $30.00 per year.

Membership dues at the national level should be paid directly to the American National CattleWomen's Association. Application is available at www.ancw.org click on "About Us" then "Membership Dues".

Membership requirements are as follows:

A. Must be a woman of 18 years or older
B. Must have a sincere interest in the promotion of beef and the Kern County CattleWomen's Association
C. Must have sponsorship of a person already a member of the Kern County CattleWomen.
