Mission Statement:

Believing that the livestock industry is of basic importance to world existence, we, the Tulare County CattleWomen, dedicate ourselves to support it with our labor and finances; to promote it through information and publicity; to encourage it's producers with our understanding and love; to do all in our power to instill in the coming generation the love of the land and of life; that is inherent in Cattlemen and CattleWomen.

Who We Are:

Since 1949, CattleWomen have used their grassroots volunteer spirit to educate the world's consumers about the convenient, versatile, and nutritious quality of beef. As committed volunteers to the beef industry our consumer education and promotion is an integral part of our organization.

Beef Promotion Projects:

TCCW members have the opportunity to influence consumer perception about beef nutrition, food safety and convenience.

Legislative Network:

TCCW Members participate in the beef industry's legislative process through our volunteer call to action phone tree and by partnering with our state, and national Cattlemen and CattleWomen's associations.

Social Activities:

TCCW members participate in planning and promoting events such as:

- Fall Banquet
- Spring Tour
- Country Round up

Community Service:

We provide an opportunity to bring beef into classrooms by providing funds for schools to buy the beef used in home economic classes. We also fund a popular scholarship to help young people further their education in agriculture. Members also take the opportunity to bring books into young children's classrooms and have developed lesson plans to educate them on ranching and the importance of cattle and everything we derive from them.
