Contest Rules: (PLEASE READ CAREFULLY THERE ARE SEVERAL ITEMS THAT HAVE CHANGED!!)

The California Beef Ambassador Contest: We will be selecting the following winners based on their total over all scores in the contest.

- 1 Overall High Point Contestant
- 1 Second Overall High Point Contestant
- 1 Senior and 1 Junior winner from each “Region” Northern, Central, and Southern for a total of 3 Senior and 3 Junior Beef Ambassadors.

Each unit may have 5 contestants total. Contestants can be either juniors or seniors. If your unit wants to have more than 5 contestants please contact Salene Duarte for more information.

- Junior Division: age 12-16 (Must be 12, but not over 16 by Sept. 1, 2022)
- Senior Division: age 17-20 (Must be 17, but not over 20 by Sept. 1, 2022)

Contest Details:

All areas of the contest will be judged by a panel of judges. 1 copy of the judging sheets will be available for contestants prior to the event for them to review the areas in which they will be judged on. In general contestants will be judged on their interaction with judges, knowledge, articulation, poise and the contestant's ability to "Tell the Beef Production Story" and present the industry in a positive light. The contestants should be well versed in all areas of beef production and the beef industry relating to consumers.

Here are the four areas of contest:

1. Media Interview - The contestant will participate in a mock media interview. The interviewer will have pre-determined questions to ask each contestant with the option to ask follow-up questions in order to extrapolate additional knowledge or clarify a point. Special attention should be paid to all current industry issues.

Questions can be from any or all of the following topics:

- Antibiotics
- Beef Life Story
- Social Media in the Beef Industry
- Factory Farming
- Plant Based Alternatives

2. Beef Education – Contestant must create a slide show presentation comprised of 3 to 5 slides on a topic to educate consumers, youth, or the general public. Your presentation needs to include the following:

- Introduction - What is the goal of the lesson
- Time Block – Lay out of time needed for this lesson
- Activity – Describe the activity that teaches this lesson
- Closing – What will they have learned

These slides will be turned into the Google Classroom prior to the event, by April 4th. At the contest you will give a 3 to 5 mins presentation explaining your slides and the lesson you will be teaching. Keep in mind you are not teaching cattle people you are looking to teach consumers, youth, or the general public.

3. Issues Response - Contestants will be provided with a topic or questions regarding the beef industry. Each contestant will compose a brief (150 words or less) response. Each contestant will be scored on their ability to respond to an industry article by thoughtfully answering questions, identifying misinformation, and listing positive consumer information.

Questions can be from any or all of the following topics:

- Antibiotics
- Beef Life Story
- Social Media in the Beef Industry
- Factory Farming
- Plant Based Alternatives

- 4. Social Media Entry – After your entry has been received you will receive an invite to the CA Cattlewomen’s Facebook Group for the contest. Contestants will be required to create 3 posts by April 4th.

Posts should be created for the consumer not someone in the cattle industry. Each post must be of a different topic and contain content from areas such as: beef nutrition, animal welfare and safety, beef marketing, beef production, a hot topic in the beef industry or your life as it applies to the beef industry. Be sure to include hashtags.

At the event contestants will be shown two social media posts and asked to review and critique them based on the photos, message, hashtags and appropriateness of content for consumers.

Incentive Prizes:

Contestants participating in the CA Beef Ambassador contest will receive monetary incentives sponsored by the California Beef Council. In order to receive these monetary incentive contestants must participate in all 4 areas the CA Beef Ambassador contest (media Interview, beef education, issue response, and social media entry).

The overall point winners and Junior and Senior 1st place winners must also agree to the following commitments to receive their incentive monies at the end of their term.

Commitments:

Agree to represent the CA Cattlewomen as a CA Beef Ambassador from April of contest year to March of the following year by doing the following:
